Headline:
Snow showers in east Friday. Dry, sunny west. Cold everywhere.

This Evening and Tonight:
A few snow showers overnight especially for southern Tayside and later Fife. Dry with clear periods further west. Not as cold as last night due to a freshening southeasterly wind. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Friday:
Rather cloudy in the east with further snow showers, mostly over parts of Angus and east Fife. Staying dry and sunny further west. Remaining cold with fresh southeastery winds. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A few snow showers lingering on Saturday morning but becoming mainly dry. Cloudier on Sunday and Monday with some patchy rain or snow and gales around the coasts.
